Supporting his motion, Tait declared that it was desirable to keep the federal troops in the strike district for as long as possible, but that if the legislature hastened action on the measure making it possible for the governor to call out the militia again it would result in the early withdrawal of the federal troops.

The committee of the whole house voted to report favorably on the bond bill and this night was renewed to amend the measure.

GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATING REQUEST FOR MORE TROOPS
Denver, May 8.—In reply to Governor Antero's request to the war department that federal troops be sent to Oak Creek and Crested Butte coal mining districts in Colorado, the following telegram was received yesterday from Secretary Garrison:

"Your telegram of May 8 received. I have ordered a report made to me on conditions at Crested Butte and Oak Creek. Will act when I get the facts."

Last week upon request of federal authorities that a militia detachment be sent to the Oak Creek district in Routt county, twenty men were sent.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN HOLD CELEBRATION FOR LUDLOW
San Francisco, May 9.—Working-men and women held a mass meeting in the business district today as a memorial to the women and children killed recently at Ludlow, Colo., in the miners' strike.

The names of the dead were read, the speaker saying it was purposeless to establish each as an individual in the minds of his hearers, thus getting away from a custom of speaking of the poor only in numbers. The services were conducted by Dr. J. H. M. Jackson and Rabbi J. Nieto.

ORDERS AT GALVESTON

ARE TO BE READY

Galveston, Tex., May 9.—The conversion of chartered steamships into arms transports and supply carriers has rapidly increased in the past four days, and the quartermaster's department is under orders to be prepared to move troops in large numbers and vast quantities of supplies to Vera Cruz. The information here is that 50,000 troops may be sent to Mexico at any time.

Army officers expect to make a timely return in connection with the freight ship Colorado into a hunting stable to every horses to Mexico. The Colorado was unhooked last night and within thirty minutes was swung alongside the Army pier.

CAVALRY MOVED FROM EL PASO TO BROWNSVILLE

El Paso, May 9.—The first squadron of the Twelfth United States cavalry was ordered today from Fort Bliss to Brownsville, Texas, to relieve the Texas militia which has been on border patrol there. The four troops will leave tomorrow.

STATE SCHOOL OF MINES HAS HAD GREAT YEAR

Commencement Next Thursday. President Jones Preparing to Collect Prize Mining Exhibit for Fair.

With the closing exercises to be held next Thursday, May 14, the State School of Mines at Socorro, of which F. A. Jones, of this city, is president, will round out one of the best school years in its history. The 1914 class has set a higher standard than ever before, and indications are that there will be an increase of 25 per cent in attendance next year.

President Jones was in the city today and announced that Governor W. C. McDonald would deliver the commencement address at the annual next Thursday. State School Superintendent A. N. White will also speak. There are four graduates this year.

Dr. Jones is mining commissioner for New Mexico of the San Diego exposition. He said today that he hoped to get together a mining exhibit from New Mexico that would surpass and bring him at the fair. At the St. Louis fair his collection took first prize in competition with exhibits from all over the world.

GERMAN EMPEROR LIKES UNIFORM OF THE SWISS ARMY

Geneva, Switzerland, May 9.—The emperor of Germany, who since his visit to the Swiss maneuvers two years ago, has shown great interest in the Swiss army, believes that the present somewhat dark uniform worn by the Swiss Alpine troops makes them too conspicuous against a background of snow. He has therefore just forwarded through his minister of defense a hundred square yards of a specially made gray blanket to the federal government. The gift has been accepted with thanks and the new cloth now is being converted into uniforms for the Alpine company, as an experiment. It is said, however, that if the experiment proves a success that the emperor will provide a larger stock to clothe all the Swiss Alpine battalions.

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN MARCH IN SUFFRAGE PARADE

Ten Brass Bands Accompany Ladies Through Streets of National Capital in Pursuit of the Ballot

IMMENSE CROWDS ALONG LINE OF MARCH

Mass Meeting Follows in Which Wife of Congressman Kent of California Presides. A Cavalry Division.

(By Special Wire to Evening Herald.)

Washington, May 9.—With banners flying, ten bands playing and the women singing a marching song, several thousand suffragists from various sections of the country today paraded along Pennsylvania avenue from Lafayette Square to the Capitol. There were 531 of them, representing every state in the union, and assigned one to each senator and representative presented to the members of congress petitions asking the passage of the Bristol-Mondell resolution calling for a federal constitutional amendment enfranchising women.

Immense crowds viewed the procession along the route. When the Capitol was reached the bands were massed on the plaza before the east front, where they played "March of the Women," composed by Dr. Ethel Smyth of England, accompanying a chorus of 1,000 women, wearing robes of white with green sashes and plumes of green on their heads.

The parade followed a mass meeting in a downtown theater presided over by Mrs. William Kent, wife of Representative Kent of California, and at which stirring addresses were made by Miss Caroline Lexow, field secretary of the Woman's Political Union of New York, Mrs. Donald Hooker of Baltimore, and Miss Lucy Burns of Brooklyn, vice-chairman of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, under the auspices of which the demonstration was held.

Among those occupying boxes at the meeting were Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York, Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles of Wilmington, Del., daughter of President Cleveland's secretary of state; Miss Julia Lathrop, chief of the Federal Children's Bureau; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch of New York, daughter of the late Elizabeth Cady Stanton, one of the pioneer leaders in the suffrage movement; the Equal Franchise Society of Philadelphia; Mrs. Antoniette Funk of Chicago, and the Pennsylvania Men's League for Suffrage. A number of young women, many of them prominent in society, acted as ushers.

There were many novel features in the parade and the marching women were cheered loudly by the throngs that lined Pennsylvania avenue all the way from Lafayette Square, opposite the White House to the Capitol. First and foremost was borne aloft a banner, twenty feet wide, bearing the inscription: "We demand the passing of the Bristol-Mondell resolution."

Then came the first section, the pageant division, typifying Spring, Youth and Hope, which had been arranged under the direction of Mrs. Ethelbert Andrews, a well known artist. Thousands of garlands of flowers were carried by the young women and children, the shades of the blossoms having been selected with an eye to harmonizing with the union's colors, purple, white and gold.

In this division also marched the chorus of 1,000 led by Mrs. Apolline M. Blair, president of the Rumbelton club of this city. Attractive as was this part of the parade, it did not evoke any more enthusiasm or interest from the onlookers than the cavalry section which came next and was commanded by Mrs. Juliet Barrett Riddle of Washington, who also was the mounted grand marshal of the procession.

In advance of the cavalry contingent were seven color bearers on horseback, each carrying a purple, white and gold flag. At their head rode Miss Elsie Hill, daughter of former Representative Hill of Connecticut. Among the prominent cavalrywomen were Mrs. Denver S. Church, wife of Representative Church of California; Mrs. Charles Forrest Curr, wife of another California representative; Miss Mary Moran of Washington, niece of Clifford Pinchot, former chief forester; Miss Alberta Hill, formerly of Australia, now of New York, and Miss Elizabeth Kent, daughter of Representative Keay.

Miss George Odell was chairman of the foot marshals of the political division, which was next in line and which was subdivided into various sections. The sections that created the most interest were those of the women writers and the actresses. The former was organized by Mrs. Marie Manning Gash of Washington, and among those who bridged with her were Mrs. Zena Gide of Wisconsin; Edna Kenton, Helen Reimer Snyder Martin, Mrs. Adelaidie Fairbanks Timmons, U. N. M.; Mrs. Ethel Cliffe Darr, Marguerite Spaulding Gerry of New York; Alice Duer Miller, and Roberta Bradshaw. Among the actresses Hattie Williams, Annie Bister and Mrs. Mary Keay Clagett were conspicuous.

Other groups included college women, farmers, waitresses, saleswomen, laundresses, women printers, stenographers, social workers, seamstresses, artists, physicians, dentists, nurses, lawyers, teachers, taxpayers, and homemakers, the latter section organized by Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley of

Experienced Women Advise Mother's Friend

Because it is so perfectly safe to use and has been of much great help to a host of expectant mothers, these women, experienced in this most happy period, advise the use of "Mother's Friend."

Applied externally to the abdominal muscles its purpose is to relieve the undue tension upon the cords and the surrounding tissue muscle expansion. Beneath the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and the gentle, soothing embracement, "Mother's Friend," is designed to so lubricate the muscular fibers as to avoid the unnecessary and continuous nagging upsets myriad of pains. It relieves action.

Applied to the breasts it affords the proper massage to prevent caking.

Thousands of women have reason to believe in this splendid help under the trying ordeal of motherhood. Their letters are eloquent of its great value. In use for months it has come to be a standard remedy for the purpose.

There is scarcely a well-stocked drug store anywhere but what you can easily obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend," and in nearly every town and in a growing number who have used it in earlier years. Expectant mothers are urged to try this splendid assistant to comfort. "Mother's Friend" is prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 410 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga. Send for our little book.

Washington, wife of the noted pure food expert.

An interesting feature was a large delegation of women voters from the states where members of the fair sex now are allowed to cast the ballot. Walking at the head of this contingent was Dr. Cora Smith King of Seattle, Washington, treasurer of the national council of women voters. Bringing up the rear of the parade were hundreds of women under the banners of six states.

The words of the song, "The March of the Women," which was sung by the marchers and which had been heard in this country only once before, are:

"Shout, shout, up with your song,
Cry with the wind, for the dawn is breaking;
March, march, swing you along,
Wide blows our banner, and hope is waking,

Song with thy story, dreams with thy glory,
Lo, they call, and glad is their word;

Louder and louder it swells,
Thunder and freedom, the voice of the Lord.

"Long long—we in the past
Cowered in dread from the light of heaven,
Strong, strong—stand we at last.
Pearls in faith and with sight
Strength in beauty, life with its day,

"Hear, hear, oh hear and obey!
These, these—beckon us on!
Open your eyes to the blaze of day.

"Comrades—ye who have dared
First in the battle to strive and sorrows,
Scorned, spurned—nought have ye cared,
Raising your eyes to a wider tomorrow,
Ways that are weary, days that are dreary,

Toll and pain by faith ye have borne;
Hail, hail—victors ye stand,
Wearing the wreath that the brave have worn.

"Life, strife—these two are one,
Naught can ye win but by faith and daring.
On—on—that ye have done
But for the work of today preparing.

Firm in reliance, laugh and defiance,
(Laugh in hope, for sure is the end)
March, march—many as one,
Shoulder to shoulder and friend to friend."

M. IWAYA GETS OUT OF JAIL UNDER BOND

35. Iwaya, the Japanese who tried unsuccessfully to gain his freedom with a writ of habeas corpus yesterday, got out of the county jail under bond today. His bail is $250. He is accused of embezzlement by F. Matsumura, who says he got away with $100.

Iwaya is to have a preliminary hearing before Justice McMillan.

Or if you may come and see for yourself,
Right on our camping grounds,
Did you ever think that we needed your help?

Each time you have stopped to think what have you found,
Reaching out to help you are we Pirates.

Of course, we Pirates all worship our flag,
For never a moment do we let her drag.

Pirates' flag is no disgrace;

I never regret, never an ounce,
Reaching out and boasting a space.

As I see some opponent pose for a pounce

Toward the thing we all hold dear,
Every brother Pirates' flag when down.

So give a boost to Old Glory and lift her from the ground.

Taking the Count.

A doctor in an Iowa town had been very busy for several days, and was worn out and sleepy when he got to bed one morning about 2 o'clock.

Just as he dropped off a summons came from a house half a mile away. The lady of the house, the call said, was dying of a heart difficulty.

The sleepy doctor got into his clothes somehow and went to the house, where the patient—a very stout woman—was in bed, breathing stertorously.

The doctor could find nothing especially wrong, but the woman was pained.

"Cough!" he ordered. She could not. Then he put his ear over her heart and said: "Count slowly."

Next thing he knew he woke to hear the woman counting faintly.

DECLARES VILLA IS GOING TO DEFEAT

J. B. S. Menet, Refugee from Tampico Says Provisional President has Sixty Thousand Troops Around City.

SHARPLY CRITICIZES GOVERNMENT'S COURSE

Special Dispatch to Evening Herald

Santa Fe, N. M., May 9.—J. B. S. Menet, a refugee from Tampico, and a son of A. Menet, a well known Los Vegas business man, arrived in Santa Fe today, probably to remain indefinitely. He came from Tampico to Galveston in a torpedo boat after the recent order to Americans to quit Mexico.

Mr. Menet is a sharp critic of the government's policy in Mexico, which he says has been mistaken throughout. He believes that recognition of the Huerta government by the United States would have enabled Huerta to complete his control of the situation and declares that free shipment of arms into Mexico has resulted in a slaughter of the innocents.

Mr. Menet says that to his knowledge Huerta has close to sixty thousand troops, chiefly American, and that they are well armed and equipped, and that Villa's army has absolutely no chance to defeat them. He thinks Fonson will require many more men than he now has before he can move successfully on Mexico City.

Mr. Menet says that the American government is more popular in Mexico than he is, commands no more respect in Mexico than a red bandana. Mr. Menet, who has been in business at Tampico, brings a first-hand picture of conditions there and throughout the republic, which is distinctly gloomy, and he feels that armed intervention is now the only possible solution.
